Mr. Thornton expects to finish the census and numbering for the city directory in about ten days more, and all who have been overlooked or who have changed their numbers can be put in the directory right by leaving their orders at this office. We hope to have the directory out in thirty days after the census is completed.

Lester's report concerning the Eddyville penitentiary and Hopkinsville asylum has not yet been filed. Warden Happy thinks his friends on the board of sinking fund commissioners will save him from dismissal in spite of his incompetency. Superintendent Letcher is quietly waiting until the inspector's report is filed, when he will fight for his position.

Messrs. Ely & Co., the merchant tailors, are this week moving their stock to Jackson, Tenn., where they will in the future be located. Mr. W. R. Ely, the head of the firm, is one of Hopkinsville's best young business men, who has for ten years or more been identified with the merchant tailoring business in this city. His partner is Mr. Frank T. Gorman, also a merchant of long experience here and elsewhere. We regret to see these gentlemen leave Hopkinsville and take pleasure in recommending them to the people of Jackson.

MATRIMONIAL.

GANT-PARRISH.—Mr. Campbell Gant, son of Mr. M. Gant, was married at Owensboro Wednesday the 20th inst., to Miss Eva Parrish, at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. W. E. Parrish. They will reside in Owensboro, after a wedding trip to the West.

JOHNSON—ALDER.—Mr. James W. Johnson and Miss Sarah J. Alder, both of the Pilot Rock country, came into the city Wednesday and were married at the residence of Mr. J. W. O'Daniel, on South Liberty street. Rev. Geo. R. Taylor, of the Universalist church, officiated. As soon as the ceremony was said the couple left for their home.

W. O. Buckley and Mrs. Stella Strachan, both of near Elkton, were married Tuesday.

Mrs. Buckley, whose maiden name was Stella Latham, was wedded quite young to Mr. Strachan, who after three years' married life, became unbalanced mentally and was placed in the asylum here, where he has remained ever since. Mrs. Strachan last year obtained a divorce from him, and this is her second marriage, both of her husbands being still alive. Mr. Buckley was a widower.

BOND-FOARD.—Mr. McNeal Bond, of Jackson, Tenn., and Miss Cornelia Foard, of Earlinton, Ky., were married at noon Wednesday in Grace Episcopal church, Rev. R. S. Carter officiating.

The attendance was limited to a comparatively small number of invited friends of the contracting couple.

The church was handsomely decorated with evergreens, flowers and growing plants. Mendelssohn's wedding march was played by Miss Julia Venable on the organ and Miss Ida Greer, on the violin.

The bridal party entered preceded by the four ushers, Messrs. Albert T. McNeal, Jr. of Memphis and Walker Wood, and W. Terry Benton, of Louisville and Hunter Wood, Jr.

Miss Irene Bond, sister of the groom, the maid of honor, came alone. She was followed by the bride leaning upon the arm of her father, Col. Joe F. Foard. Miss Bond was attired in a violet colored changeable silk. The bride wore a very handsome brown traveling dress.

The groom and his best man, Dr. Jere Cook, of Jackson, Tenn., entered from the vestry. Rev. Mr. Carter performed the ritualistic ceremony of the Episcopal church in an impressive and appropriate style. Col. Foard after giving the bride away stepped aside and the groom assumed his position by her side. The ceremony was concluded with the couple kneeling at the altar. After the wedding the bridal party repaired to Hotel Latham and partook of a wedding dinner in the ordinary. Mr. and Mrs. Bond took the 2:53 P. M. train for the South. After a bridal tour they will take up their residence at Jackson, Tenn.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Col. Foard and is a young lady of queenly bearing and unusual attractiveness. Her beauty is of a pronounced brunette type and she is tall and graceful. Mr. Bond is a young business man of solid worth and prominence. He has recently been in business in St. Louis, but will have charge of a branch house at Jackson, Tenn.

In Older Times
People overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action; but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently overcome habitual constipation, well-informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system.

MONEY FOR THE TEACHERS.
Checks For a Part of That Now Due Mailed By the Auditor.
Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 21.—While there is not enough money in the treasury of the School Fund to pay all the last one-fifth payment due the public schools on January 1, it has been discovered that there is half enough, and the Auditor, will, by the co-operation of Superintendent Davidson, today mail checks aggregating one-half of this final payment. This leaves about one-tenth of all the money due the teachers yet to be paid, and it is doubtful if they get it before all the schools have closed. This is owing to the fact that there will be comparatively little revenue, out of which the school fund gets a share, coming in before July 1.

The gross earnings of the L. & N. railroad company for the second week in January were $79,210, an increase of $7,275 over the same time in 1896. A comparative statement for the first two weeks show an increase of $10,245 over the same period in 1896. Earnings from July 1st, 1896, to Jan. 14, 1897, compared with 1896-97 show a decrease of $133,123.

Syrup of Figs

Gladness Comes
With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.
If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.
